

The Lions Club

The Liberal Lions Club met in regular session at the Grier Monday at noon, with Clarence Yocum in the chair. After roll call and the reading of the minutes, the application of Dr. John D. Kelly was presented and he was duly elected to membership in the club. Walter King who represented the Lions Club at a meeting of the executives of Chamber of Commerce and classification organization at Topeka last week, gave his report. One of the main thoughts of his report was the fact that the classification clubs and Commercial bodies of the state are co-operating and working together for the betterment of the communities in all ways.

The matter of membership cards and lapel buttons was presented by Harry Knotts and the secretary was instructed to make application for the entire membership of the Liberal club.

Earl Cooper presented the cemetery proposition and brought out the fact that the local burying ground needed almost immediate attention. At the present death rate it will be a matter of less than a year until additional lots will have to be provided and this matter should receive immediate attention. Trees and shrubbery should be planted and the grounds otherwise beautified.

Cub Hunt reported that at present 14 boys of the Lions Boy Scout troop had passed examinations and were making plans to go on the big scout trip this summer. Others will probably pass the test before the time of departure. Earl Cooper was selected to give a talk to the boys at their regular meeting Monday night.

Jo Berwick presented the county roads proposition in an able manner, and it was moved that the club draft resolutions requesting the Seward County Commissioners to take the necessary steps to secure Federal and State aid in their road building plans. The motion was carried unanimously and Cubs Cooper, King, and Davis were appointed to draw up the resolutions.

Chas. Tucker of the Local Post of the American Legion was presented and issued his oral challenge to the Lions for a ball game which was accepted. Meeting adjourned. Maurice Pysner will be chairman at the next regular meeting.

OBITUARY

Perry Peary was born in Martinsville, Indiana, December 7, 1843. He died at his home in Liberal, Kansas May 24, 1922, at 7:30 a. m., at the age of 78 years, five months and 17 days.

On July 3, 1882, he was united in marriage to Miss Julia Thompson of Charitan, Iowa. To this happy union eight children were born; seven sons and one daughter, Perry Peary of Hugoton, Kansas; Pearl Peary of Brighton, Colorado; Clyde Peary of Gallispie, Illinois; Mrs. Elsie Lynch of Hugoton, Kansas, Perry and Arlington Peary of Liberal and two others who preceded him to the land eternal, Harold and Lee.

He moved to Stevens county Kansas, in 1909, where they lived on a farm until 1906, at which time they moved to where they have since lived. He was a member of the Woodman lodge for over thirty-four years, and held the distinction of being regular in his attendance and keeping in good standing. The local Woodman lodge had charge of his burial.

Five years ago he became an invalid from an injury, from which he never fully recovered. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, six children, five sisters, three brothers, thirteen grand children, and many other relatives and friends. The funeral services were held at the Christian Church by the pastor, Rev. Eli Walker and interment was made in the Liberal cemetery.

William Ledbetter died Tuesday afternoon at the home of his daughter. The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon and interment made in the Floris cemetery.

Mr. Ledbetter was 75 years of age.

PITHY POINTS

In the lexicon of some business men, success and failure are synonyms.

Women have a limited amount of conceit, but men invariably have it in unlimited quantities.

A man may be prouder of the things he thinks he can accomplish than of those he really can.

A fool may insult and abuse others, but a wise man gives people credit for what they are actually worth.

The acme of laziness has been reached when a man feels that it is too much trouble to try to avoid trouble.

Little-Known Washington Portrait. Discovery of a long-lost portrait of George Washington by the American artist, Gilbert Stuart, in New York city, directs attention to the Stuart portrait of Washington which hangs in Memorial hall in the State Library building at Hartford, Conn. It was bought direct from the artist by virtue of a resolution of the general assembly in May, 1800. The understanding was that it had been painted by order of a committee from South Carolina, and was then declined on the ground that it was not a portrait of Washington. A committee from Connecticut conferred with Gilbert as to a Washington portrait, and purchased the one he had painted for South Carolina.

New Harbinger of Spring. There was a drumming roar above the city the other day, rising and waning and passing into distance. "Listen to her," said the man in the street, "that's the first plane I've heard for months. Sounds kind of good." His companion was equally pleased. "You know what that means, don't you?" he rejoined. "Means it's spring, that's what it means. We used to depend on the robins, but now a very different sort of bird flies when the weather gets decent again. Look at her, would you?" The gleam of a far-off wing as the plane banked, the sudden wind-borne stutter of sound, and spring's modern harbinger drifted beyond ken.—Portland Oregonian.

Mirror in Man's Hat.

A man can manage somehow to get along without a powder rag, but there are occasions when he does need a mirror and a comb for emergency use. To meet this demand, Gustav Feserback, of Trenton, N. J., has contrived a holder for both articles which may be conveniently fastened inside of a hat. It is seen in, being made of cloth, a rectangular piece of which is attached to the inside of the hat by snap fasteners at the corners. This makes the back of the holder; the front is provided by a second piece, of like size, secured to the first one by stitching. The two thus form a pocket. A horizontal line of stitching divides the pocket into two compartments, an upper one to receive the mirror and a lower one to hold the comb. One end of the pocket is left open to permit insertion of comb and glass. A slidable catch engaging the end tooth of the comb retains it in place, and the safety of the mirror is obtained by a flap which snap fastens over it.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

He will easily be content and at peace whose conscience is pure.—Thomas a Kempis.

No man ever offended his own conscience but first or last it was revenged upon him.—South.

The men who succeed best in public life are those who take the risk of standing by their own convictions.—J. A. Garfield.

WEDDING BELIEFS

Runaway marriages are rarely lucky.

The postponement of a wedding is unlucky.

Sign the marriage certificate with a quill pen for luck.

The first words spoken after marriage will come true.

To be married before sunset brings more luck than after.

Royalty that boasts blue blood in its veins has ancestors with red blood on their hands.

When a man's tongue runs a good race, we must rest assured it carries little weight.

Where cunning and compulsion fail to make an entrance, politeness opens the door with ease.
